Saskatoon Conservatory of Music

Music Lesson Policy

Please read Policy carefully. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Oxana Ossiptchouk, Director, at (306) 880-6962, or at saskatoonconservatory@gmail.com

It is expected that all students and their families will adhere to the Music Lesson Policy with regard to lessons, recitals, workshops, practicing, etc.

Terms and Conditions:

- All lessons are payable in advance.
- A non-refundable registration fee of $10.00 (maximum $15.00 per family) will apply to all registrations.
- A $20.00 administration fee will apply to NSF cheques.
- Instruction Terms: Term 1 – September through January, Term 2 – February through June
- Missed lessons due to extra-curricular activities, illness, or family vacation, will not be refunded or made up.
- Lessons cancelled by the Saskatoon Conservatory of Music will be made up.
- Missed Group Lessons, for any reason, will not be made up or credited.

Withdrawal Policy:

Refunds will not be processed after the first week of program commencement. If Saskatoon Conservatory of Music is notified of student withdrawal within the first week of the program, the tuition amount, less a $20.00 administration fee, will be refunded to the participant. Non-attendance does not constitute notice of withdrawal. Registration receipt must be returned to the Conservatory Director, Oxana Ossiptchouk.

Private instruction lesson times should follow the following guidelines based on levels:

1. Please arrive 5 minutes early for lessons, and be ready when it is your time to start.
2. All music materials and instruments must accompany the student to lessons.
3. Parents are welcome and encouraged to observe all private lessons. Group classes are for students only unless otherwise specified.
4. Students are encouraged to participate in Music Festivals and Examinations when their teacher feels they are ready.
5. Students may perform in any performance or recital planned by Saskatoon Conservatory of Music with prior notification of teacher.
6. Informal Studio Recitals are open to any students wishing to perform. Sign up sheets can be found at the office. Younger students are encouraged to attend recitals as audience.

Learning to play a musical instrument is a skill. To develop this skill, regular practice is required. Students should have regular uninterrupted practice on a daily basis. . Lessons can only be enjoyed if continuous progress is made, this requires practice and concentration. Practice should be relative to the level of playing and the length of the weekly lesson
